Fate of Teller’s Resolution to be Settled

The Senate Debate on the Resolution

The debate on Teller’s resolution to end the war with Spain, which was introduced in the Senate yesterday, continued today. Senators from both sides of the aisle were addressing the issue, with arguments ranging from the need for peace to the necessity of victory.

News from Cuba

The situation in Cuba continues to evolve. Recent dispatches indicate that the American forces are making steady progress towards Havana. The capture of Santiago has been confirmed, and the American fleet is reported to be in position to block the harbor.

Financial Matters

The Senate also considered financial matters, including the budget for the coming fiscal year and proposals for tax reform. Members were divided on the issues, with some calling for increased government spending and others advocating for strict austerity measures.

Other Topics

The debate also touched on international relations, with discussions about the role of the United States in the world and the prospects for peace negotiations with Spain.

The debate is expected to continue tomorrow, with both sides preparing for further arguments and amendments.

MARRIAGE LAWS PROCLAIMED

The state of Oregon has proclaimed its marriage laws, and the law is now in effect. The law, which was passed by the legislature, makes Oregon the 31st state to legalize marriage for all, regardless of gender.
